*Please note, Day One cannot accept used art supplies, all donations must be new.

The be* Program was created by Day One to help empower children who have experienced sexual violence or who have been involved with Human Trafficking. The goal of be is to combat Human Trafficking by providing an opportunity for youth to engage in the community, believe in themselves, and experience personal growth.

Art has been a very important part of be since its beginning. It offers children the opportunity to express themselves, heal and grow. Please consider donating today.
