

WHO WE ARE:

Day One is the only agency in Rhode Island that provides a full range of services to adult and child victims of sexual abuse. Last year, we helped approximately 12,000 children, women and men throughout Rhode Island.

WHAT WE DO.

We provide treatment, intervention, education, advocacy, and prevention services to Rhode Islanders of all ages—from preschool children to elder adults—and their families. Additionally, we advocate for public policy initiatives and systemic changes that positively impact Rhode Island families and communities.

We offer:

- A 24-hour Helpline and legal advocacy
- Law enforcement advocacy programs
- Trauma-informed clinical treatment
- Individual and group counseling
- Professional training sessions
- Prevention education workshops in schools throughout Rhode Island
- Yoga therapy groups for trauma survivors

MAKING A DIFFERENCE FOR RHODE ISLANDERS.

Today, Day One applies the agency's victim-centered approach to the critical issues affecting our communities and our children. With statewide task forces devoted to both child sex trafficking and sexual assault on college campuses, Day One works closely with lawmakers, medical providers, child welfare, law enforcement, schools and community providers to address these problems head on and create real solutions.
